

Hello Friends!

Here are some artful ideas to consider while you're sheltering at home.

LOOK

Haitian Art: Did you know that one of the country's finest private collections of Haitian Art is right here in Rappahannock County — in the home of John and Beverly Sullivan! You can visit their collection virtually by clicking Here. The Haitian Art society recently created a very engaging and educational website which includes collections from around the country, both public and private, including one in Rappahannock County. Enjoy!

Here're some more stops on your musical tour of the County.

Castleton Festival is streaming Puccini's The Girl of the Golden West produced during the 2013 Castleton Festival under the baton of Maestro Maazel. You are invited to a free online performance. Click Here to sign up to stream this fabulous performance from the archives.

Sunday's Virtual House Concert at 7pm will feature more of Rappahannock's finest musicians and songwriters, featuring Vincent Day, Jeannie Wall and Joe Pipik, and hosted by KPA's Paul Reisler & Cheryl Toth. Local artists will perform from their homes in a "round-robin" format.

Grab a drink and favorite snack, put your feet up, and be inspired by the songs and the stories behind them — this Sunday night at 7pm. The concert is free. Here's the link if you want to register and attend via Zoom or stream live.

RAAC is priming the tip jar for Rappahannock guest musicians so join us by pitching in!

If you have an artful idea that you'd like us to share in an upcoming Look and Listen please let us know by emailing us at newsletter@raac.org. Unfortunately, we don't have the resources to scout out every arts-related happening in the county.

Warm wishes for health and safety from your RAAC Board
