

Look & Listen

Hello Friends!

Here're a few artful ideas for you during election week. Enjoy!

LOOK

Oak Tree for President!

Undaunted by the cancellation of 1000 Faces Mask Theater performance at Castleton in September, founder & artistic director Peggy Schadler and friends created a short video to make their voices heard. Enjoy the "An Unexpected Turn of Events" video HERE. 1000 Faces is a recipient of a 2020 RAAC Mitchell Arts Fund grant.

LISTEN

Sunday Virtual House Concert continues this Sunday at 7pm (Nov 8) — Because We Have Music — Take a long trip from the Mississippi Delta Blues of Steve Azar, then 1,200 miles up-river to the Minnesota home of singer/songwriter Ellis Delaney, and finally, half way across the country to the mountains of Virginia and the songs of Paul Reisler and Kid Pan Alley.

Steve Azar is the Music & Culture Ambassador of Mississippi. He's a modern day renaissance man, hit songwriter, recording artist, music producer, talk show host, golfer and philanthropist. A product of the Mississippi Delta region, Azar has released 6 critically acclaimed studio albums. A gifted performing songwriter, Ellis Delaney is known for her stirring lyrics, open-hearted performances and contagious laughter. A four-time guest on A Prairie Home Companion, Ellis has won more than a dozen songwriting and live performance awards.

The concert is free. Here's the link to register for limited seating in the virtual living room via Zoom or to stream anytime: Virtual House Concert. RAAC primes the tip jar for Rappahannock guest musicians; please join us by pitching in!
