

Look & Listen

Hello Friends!

Here are some artful events to complement these great fall days and evenings.

LOOK

Arts Expo 2020 now live! See and purchase artwork online by Rappahannock's finest artists and galleries who were featured in past Fall Art Tours. Each artist and gallery has up to 12 images of selected artwork in the Expo along with descriptive information, contact links, and website links. Those who participated in one of our earlier Virtual Exhibits in May-October also have links to their recorded Meet-the-Artist interviews and virtual shows.

While Arts Expo 2020 is no substitute for the Fall Art Tour, it is a chance for all to see, experience, buy, and meet artists in a different way. Click Arts Expo 2020 and enjoy now—and through the winter! New artwork and artists will be added over time so visit often.

LISTEN

Sunday Virtual House Concert continues this Sunday at 7pm (Nov 22) —Because We Have Music — this livestream concert would have to last all night to hear just the hit songs written by featured artists Pat Alger and Jon Vezner. Hosted by Paul Reisler and Cheryl Toth of Kid Pan Alley, you'll get to hear the songs made famous by the stars sung by the writers who wrote them.

Pat Alger's songs have been recorded by The Everly Brothers, Peter, Paul & Mary, Dolly Parton, Livingston & James Taylor, and scores of others. He's had over 20 chart hits including 8 No.1's. In 2010, Pat was inducted into the Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame. Songs by Grammy award-winning singer/songwriter, Jon Vezner, have been recorded by great artists such as Martina McBride, Janis Ian, Nancy Griffith, Faith Hill, and many others. Where've You Been won a Grammy and was named Song of the Year by the major country music associations.

The concert is free. Here's the link to register for limited seating in the virtual living room via Zoom or to stream anytime: Virtual House Concert. RAAC primes the tip jar for Rappahannock guest musicians; please join us by pitching in!
