

Look & Listen

Hello Friends!

Here are some artful events to warm the winter's nights with comfort and joy. Warmest wishes from all of us at RAAC for a happy, healthy and safe holiday and New year!

LOOK

Winter Solstice Greetings from 1000 Faces. Celebrate the the return of light, hope, and new beginnings with this beautiful slide show + music. Click HERE.

Rappahannock Gallery Exhibitions—several exhibits can still be seen online. Have a look by visiting/clicking: Cottage Curator, Gay Street Gallery, Middle Street Gallery, R.H. Ballard Gallery, and RAAC's Arts Expo 2020.

LISTEN

Allison & Linn Hampton—Three Carols for Harp and Guitar—celebrate the season with three traditional carols performed by Allison and Linn: In the Bleak Mid-Winter, God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen, In Dolce Jubilo. This audio & video can be streamed HERE.

Castleton Festival Archives—restart your momentum after the solstice with this energizing 15-minute performance of Ravel's Bolero, conducted by Lorin Maazel in Bremen during his European tour with the Pittsburgh Symphony in 1994. Stream it HERE.

Virtual House Concert continues this Sunday at 7pm (Dec 27) —*Because We Have Music — this livestream concert features Holly Near, considered one of the founders of the women's music movement of the 70's and 80's. Her bio includes touring with Jane Fonda, Donald Sutherland, Pete Seeger, and many others. Singer/songwriter/painter/educator Natalia Zukerman grew up in one of the most renowned classical music families in the world, with Pinchas and Eugenia Zukerman. Natalia returns to the virtual stage for this concert.

The concert is free. What better place to tell a bunch of good stories and listen to some great music than in the intimate atmosphere of a house concert? Here's the link to register for limited seating in the virtual living room via Zoom or to stream anytime: Virtual House Concert.
