

Look & Listen

Hello Friends!

Here are some artful events to warm you on these winter February evenings. Warmest wishes from all of us at RAAC.

LOOK

Calling Rappahannock kids in grades 3-7 with an interest in theater!

Members of RAAC's Community Theatre, in partnership with Headwaters, are launching a Drama Club. It's free, no stage experience required—just curiosity & enthusiasm about what goes into making a play. Saturdays 10-11:30 for 6 weeks starting February 13 at Rappahannock Elementary School. For details and sign-up contact info@headwatersfnd.org or call 540-227-5170. A few spots are still available, so sign-up soon!

Rappahannock Gallery Exhibitions

Enjoy local art exhibits online by visiting/clicking: Cottage Curator, Middle Street Gallery, R.H. Ballard Gallery, and RAAC's Arts Expo 2020.

LISTEN

RAAC—Rappahannock Radio Community Playlist

Rappahannock Radio and RAAC have partnered to produce a playlist of dozens of songs performed by local musicians. A big shout out to Kiaya Abernathy for creating the playlist! Click now and listen to some of your favorite local performers on Rappahannock Radio and SoundCloud!

Virtual House Concert continues next Sunday at 7pm (Feb 14) — Because We Have Music

This Valentine's Day, Kid Pan Alley's concert series brings some of the finest songwriters in the country together for an evening of love songs. Featuring Beth Nielsen Chapman, Tom Prasada Rao, and Paul Reisler. Chapman co-wrote one of the most popular love song of the late 20th century, Faith Hill's This Kiss, as well as Sand and Water which was performed by Elton John in memory of Princess Diana. She's released thirteen solo albums and written seven #1 hits. The concert is free. Here's the link to register for limited seating in the virtual living room via Zoom or to stream anytime: Virtual House Concert.

RAAC

Rappahannock Association
for Arts and Community

Our mailing address is:

PO Box 24

Washington VA 22747