

Look & Listen

Hello Friends!

Here are some artful events to jump start your spring.
Warmest wishes from all of us at RAAC.

LOOK

Gay Street Gallery—Virtual Artists' Talk: Saturday, Mar 20, 5-6 pm. See and hear artists Barbara Heile, Kristen Morsches, and Kevin Adams talk about their work and processes while "strolling" through the gallery in a virtual exhibition while you listen. Gay Street Gallery is open Friday-Monday, 10:00-5:00.

Cottage Curator—Exhibit of Sara Schneidman's colorful clay works online. It's part of a broader exhibition of 23 female artists, #23WomenArtists, celebrating Women's History Month. Cottage Curator is open Friday-Sunday, 11:30-4:30.

Middle Street Gallery—Show featuring images of local photographer, Susan Raines, March 27-May 2. Middle Street Gallery is open on weekends, 11:00-5:00.

Visit other local galleries and exhibits: R.H. Ballard Gallery, and RAAC's Arts Expo.

LISTEN

Castleton Festival—Beethoven's famed C-minor Trio will stream live this Sunday, March 21 at 4 pm. As described by Dietlinde Maazel, the Trio "sets foot into a turbulent world of urgency and power, elegance and wit, and seeks closure with a furious Finale." Following the Castleton's Chamber Players performance there will be a live Q&A session. Click HERE to register.

RAAC—Rappahannock Radio Community Playlist. In case you missed it, Rappahannock Radio and RAAC partnered to bring you dozens of songs by local musicians. Listen to some of your favorite performers right now by clicking on RappahannockRadio.

Virtual House Concert continues next Sunday at 7pm (Mar 28) — Because We Have Music. The live show taps into the roots of American music, featuring Grammy winner Mollie O'Brien and guitarist Rich Moore, Bill Lloyd of the popular 80s country-rock duo, Foster and Lloyd, and hosts Paul Reisler and Cheryl Toth. The concert is free. Here's the link to register for limited seating in the virtual living room via Zoom or to stream anytime: Virtual House Concert.
