

Look & Listen

Hello Friends!

Enjoy these artful Rappahannock events this July. They're a great antidote to our muggy summer weather!

Cool wishes from all of us at RAAC.

LISTEN

Sperryville Summer Concert Series—next Thursday, July 15, at 6pm. Bobby G & Friends will star at next Thursday's evening concert along with guest guitarist and Rappahannock native, Tucker Rogers. Bring your blanket, picnic, family & friends for a perfect summer evening. Venue is the confluence of the north and south forks of the Thornton River at the end of River Lane next to Copper Fox. Event is free courtesy of RAAC, Sperryville Alliance, and a recent "Better Together" grant from the PATH Foundation. RAAC's website has more concert information.

Virtual House Concert continues this Sunday, July 11, at 7pm — Because We Have Music. The concert will feature the Nields, Kennedys, and the Reislars of Kid Pan Alley who will host the show as well as perform some of their favorites. Nerissa and Katryna Nields, with 20 albums to their credit, blend clean folk harmonies with Gen-X angst. Pete and Maura Kennedy are well-known as hosts of Dhrma Cafe on Sirius Radio, and for Pete's 9 WAMMY awards as Best Instrumentalist. The concert is free. Here's the link to register for limited seating in the virtual living room via Zoom or to stream anytime: Virtual House Concert.

Rappahannock Radio. Listen to fascinating interviews of local personalities: Duane Siler sharing his stories from his Birdseye Hill Studio; Valerie Amster talking about her inspiring journey with her therapy horse Lola, and the latest interview with Mo Safren — all on RappahannockRadio.com.

Castleton Festival — Free performances are still available for streaming, including Vigil, Beethoven "Ghost" Piano Trio, The Girl of the Golden West, All American Band Concert, and more. Click HERE to select performances to stream.
