

Look & Listen

Hello Friends!

As we enter this holiday season, we have so much to be grateful for, especially Rappahannock County and our thriving arts community. Enjoy these rich and wonderful offerings in the days ahead.

Happy Thanksgiving from all of us at RAAC.

LISTEN

Kid Pan Alley's Because We Have Music— Virtual house concert series returns this Sunday, November 28th at 7pm EST for a free concert featuring Grammy winning songwriters The DonJuans, world percussion master Tom Teasley, and hosts Paul and Cheryl Reisler. The DonJuans song, Where've You Been, was the first song in country music history to sweep all major song of the year honors! Tom Teasley has won 3 Helen Hayes Theatre awards, Wammies for 4 years running as World Instrumentalist of the Year and was named the World Percussionist of the Year by Drum! Magazine. Paul Reisler is the founder of Trapezoid and Kid Pan Alley. Come join the musicians in their Zoom living room. Reserve your place at <https://kpa-nov28.eventbrite.com>

Kid Pan Alley's Maybe By Next Year—Album release December 3rd, is a collection of songs written with children during the pandemic. Music has proven to be an invaluable way for kids to express their feelings during our health crisis. This collaboration between kids and The Kid Pan Alley Band, along with favorite musical artists Darrell Scott, Robbie Schaefer and Billy Jonas, to name a few, reflects their struggles, fears, and hopes for the future. These kids look forward to the time when they can “tear their mask into little bitty pieces.” Visit Kid Pan Alley for details.

Linn Barnes and Allison Hampton—Music for Celtic Harp, Lute and Guitar, Sunday, December 5, 4-6PM, featuring Joseph Cunliffe, flute and Steve Bloom, percussion and special guest Robert Aubrey Davis. Live at The Theatre House, 671 Castleton View Road, Castleton, VA. PURCHASE TICKETS

LOOK

Rappahannock Schools Gallery—a special exhibit, featured as part of the Fall Art Tour, will be on display at the Washington School through November, Mondays through Fridays, 10AM-4PM, 567 Mount Salem Avenue, Washington, VA. Admission is free. Masks required indoors, regardless of vaccination status. Five schools are represented this year. Below are thumbnails of the mural-sized works on display. Come see the creativity and imagination of our Rappahannock kids. The arts are alive in Rappahannock County Schools! Visit Rappahannock Schools Gallery | Fall Art Tour for information.

Rappahannock County Elementary School

"There's Only One You"

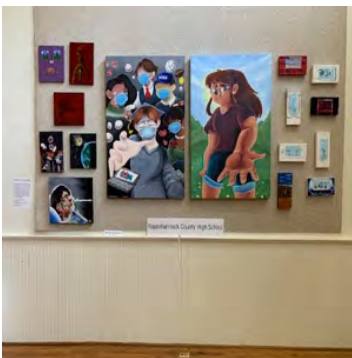

Wakefield Country Day School

"E Pluribus Unum"

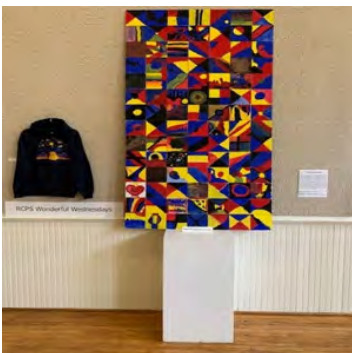

Belle Meade Montessori School

"Sneaker Doodles"

Rappahannock County High School

"Covid World vs Non-Covid World"

Wonderful Wednesdays Day Camp

"A Lesson in Abstracts"

Winter Wonderland at Avon Hall—A Family Fun Day Out! Sunday, December 5, 12:30PM-3:30PM. Come join in the festivities, led by Santa and Mrs. Claus with a gift for every child. Enjoy caroling, music from the RCHS band, kids storytime, the annual Artisans Market and a bonfire. Avon Hall is located at 22 Avon Lane, Washington, VA.

Rappahannock Galleries—visit local galleries, in-person and online, to enjoy ongoing exhibits: Cottage Curator, Gay Street Gallery, Haley Fine Art, Middle Street Gallery, Gallery Artists \(rhballardgallery.com\), Silver Maples Gallery and Thornton River Art.

Check out details regarding other in-person, virtual and suspended Rappahannock County events due to Covid precautions at Explore Rappahannock VA.

Our mailing address is:
PO Box 24
Washington VA 22747