

Look & Listen

Greetings Friends!

Though Punxsutawney Phil saw his shadow, hints of spring abound! Thankfully, our Rappahannock artists bring vibrant energy and color year-round. Enjoy these offerings in the weeks ahead.

Warm wishes from all of us at RAAC.

LISTEN

Kid Pan Alley's free Because We Have Music livestream series this Sunday, February 27th at 7PM features singer/songwriter Amy Speace and jazz saxophone master Marshall Keys along with hosts Paul and Cheryl Reisler. Register for a fun evening of great music and shared stories at k-feb27.eventbrite.com.

Castleton Festival-Chausson Concerto for Violin, Piano and String Quartet, Op. 21, in memory of Lorin Maazel, Sunday, March 6, 2022, 4PM-6PM, Theatre House, 664 Castleton View Road, Castleton, VA 22716. Ticket price $25-$60. BUY TICKETS.

Castleton Festival-Tom Teasley and Eric Silberger, World Fusion Percussion and Improvisation, Saturday, March 12, 2022, 4PM-6PM, Theatre House, 664 Castleton View Road,

Castleton, VA 22716. Ticket price $25-$60. BUY TICKETS.

Kid Pan Alley Writes Songs With

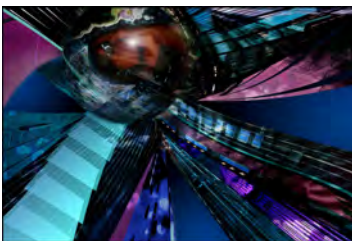

Rappahannock Elementary-Last week, Kid Pan Alley Songwriters Paul and Cheryl Reisler completed a residency with the 2nd and 4th grades at Rappahannock Elementary School. Here are some of the titles to give you an idea of the diversity of topics—Punxsutawney Phil, Here's What I Feel in My Heart, and I Didn't Spill the Beans. Here's one of the songs, All My ideas Are Love Songs, written with Ms. Lopiano's 2nd grade. Listen here: bit.ly/k-rces22

Decoding the Rosetta Stone with Edward

Dolnick-In case you missed it, a virtual, free zoom interview presented by Planet Word Museum, features author Dolnick as he talks about his new book, The Writing of the Gods. Listen here: Decoding the Rosetta Stone with Edward Dolnick - YouTube

LOOK

Transcendence-A new show of works by Jim Serbent will be on exhibit at Middle Street Gallery February 25-April 3, 2022. Serbent's other-worldly, yet accessible works, are inspired by ideas associated with Zen and spiritual enlightenment. For details visit Middle Street Gallery, 325A Middle Street, Washington, VA.

Doodling in the Dark-works by Rosabel Goodman-Everard, will be on exhibit at the Arts Club of DC, March 4-27, 2022 with an opening Friday March 4, 5-7PM. For details visit Arts Club of DC, 2017 I St Washington DC.

Trees-works by Patricia Underwood, will be featured in the exhibit, Coming Down to Earth, March 4-April 23, 2022 with an opening Friday, March 4, 5 - 8 PM, at Candela Gallery, 214 West Broad Street, Richmond, VA. For more details, visit Candela Gallery.

CCLC connects children to our local wildlife through photography-The Childcare and Learning Center is recipient of the 2021 Virginia Wildlife Grant Program. With the funds, CCLC is purchasing digital cameras and starting a program to connect children to our local wildlife through photography. Photographing wildlife helps children to focus their attention and get to know the world around them, while building their confidence and allowing them to share their unique perspective on the world. Learn more at The Childcare and Learning Center.

RAAC's

Claudia Mitchell Arts Fund welcomes proposals for

2022 ARTS GRANTS

from individual artists, musicians, writers,
dancers, filmmakers & organizations working & living in Rappahannock

DEADLINE - MARCH 15

Details, guidelines & application at raac.org

Rappahannock Galleries—visit local galleries, in-person and online, to enjoy ongoing exhibits: Cottage Curator, Gay Street Gallery, Geneva Welch, Haley Fine Art, Hazel River Art & Antiques, Mullany Art Studios, R. H. Ballard Gallery, Silver Maples Gallery, Sperryville ARTist Cooperative and Thornton River Art.

Keep up with the latest happenings each month at Fall Art Tour!

Check out details regarding other in-person, virtual and suspended Rappahannock County events due to Covid precautions at Explore Rappahannock VA.

Our mailing address is:

PO Box 24

Washington VA 22747