#23WomenArtists is the second new online exhibition at Cottage Curator, featuring the art of women, in celebration of Women's History Month. It started with a simple question: Can you name five women artists? The National Museum of Women in the Arts has been asking this question on social media each March during Women's History Month. The campaign calls attention to the fact that historically women have not been treated equally in the art world and remain undervalued in museums, galleries and auction houses. Thornton River Art- is selling hand-knitted Sperryville Beanies for the month of March. 100% of the proceeds go to the Rappahannock Food Pantry! The artist wishes to remain anonymous, but in her words:

What does a knitter do when a friend brings her huge bags of fine yarn to lighten her own stash? Well, she knits.

What does a painter do if she's the knitter?

Well, she intuitively combines the yarns by color harmony and varieties of weight and makes a one-of-a-kind hat to gift her family and friends at Christmas.

Then, she gets an inspiration...
